Welfare Workers Outline
Program at Session
In Columbus

Columbus, Oct. 17.—Salary increases for employees of state institutions, support of plans to increase facilities for care of feeble-minded and indorsement of a proposed law to extend adult probation in Ohio, feature the program to be sponsored by the Ohio Welfare conference.

The conference is also expected to get behind the plan of the Ohio Library association to incorporate library facilities in all penal institutions and employ a traveling librarian to supervise the work. It is certain the organization will indorse the movement to take the department of welfare, and possibly also the department of health, "out of politics," as it has previously gone on record on this question.

Among numerous other suggestions which have been advanced are included substitution of a system of state farms for the present city-controlled workhouse plan and provision for employment of women at the Marysville reformatory, similar to the system now in vogue in penal institutions for men. The opinion seems to prevail that the Marysville situation will adjust itself, if the department of welfare can be divorced from politics, while as to the workhouse elimination project, it is doubted in many quarters if such a change could be accomplished at this time.

It is felt that many of the employees of state hospitals and penal institutions are grossly underpaid, a fact said to have been brought clearly to the attention of the public by the threatened strike of guards at the Ohio penitentiary, and the conference is expected to sanction a readjustment without opposing sentiment.

The program for the care of the feeble-minded, which is likely to be indorsed, includes construction without further delay of two additional institutions, one in the northwest, the other in the southwest section of the state. It is possible also that a provision will be included urging creation of a separate institution or the addition of a new department at the Lancaster Boys' Industrial school for the care of delinquent defectives.

The plan of Dr. E. J. Emerick, head of the bureau of juvenile research, to district the state and employ more psychologists for extension of activities into fields where defectives may be reached before they have evinced anti-social tendencies, no doubt will be included in the program, as will also Dr. Emerick's recommendation of a new $100,000 psychopathic hospital.

FORMER SHERIFF IS •FOUND NOT GUILTY

Columbus, Oct. 17.—Former Sheriff Frank L. Holycross was found not guilty by Justice Kuhn of Bexley of charges brought by the state prohibiting department accusing the former county official of illegally possessing and transporting liquor. Kuhn's decision, announced immediately after counsel for the state and defense had argued for an hour, was greeted with cheers by the audience which crowded the little courtroom in Bexley. Kuhn indicated that he based his decision upon the fact that the state had not shown Holycross in the act of possessing or transporting liquor. The defendant alleged he was the victim of a "frame-up."

Alliance, O., Oct. 17.—Glen Coldren, 16, of Canton, was bound over to the grand jury by Probate Judge Alva A. Deal, charged with the murder of his 15-year-old chum, Lee Yeher, three weeks ago. Coldren was arrested in Cincinnati by private detectives after he had wired home for money.

It was removed from a vault in a cemetery here on the night of Jan. 9 and taken away in a truck, it is alleged. No permit for the removal of the body was issued by the board of health, officials of which said that if any prosecution followed, such action would be taken by the state board of health.

SHENANDOAH SAILS PAST FRISCO EARLY FRIDAY ON FLIGHT

Big Stogie On Trip To Camp Lewis After Having Trouble

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—Like ships that pass in the night, the giant dirigible Shenandoah, which successfully made the first transcontinental flight for that type of airship, sailed by San Francisco early today from San Diego and headed for Camp Lewis, Washington, her far western terminus.

"Passed San Francisco at 4 p. m. regret steady headwinds prevented the Shenandoah visiting San Francisco yesterday before sunset. Will come to San Francisco on return to San Diego."

This message was directed to Mayor James Rolph and the commandant of the 12th naval district.

The Shenandoah passed over Point Reyes, 21 miles north of Golden Gate at 6:25, apparently making good time. This report came from the radio corporation station at Marshalls, slightly inland.

The station reported hearing her motors of the dirigible but could not see her on account of a heavy fog.

Thousands of disappointed sightseers watched the skies before news that the airship had gone on her way north without visiting this city, was spread.

Slowed down at times almost to a stop and making from 25 to 35 miles an hour for the most part, the Shenandoah was buffeted all the way north by strong winds. At times the winds threatened to force the dirigible to sea, but throughout yesterday afternoon and last night, she maintained her course up the coast from San Diego.

As the night wore on the winds diminished and her speed picked up.

DENY CHARGE MADE BY VIC DONAHEY

Columbus, Oct. 17.—George T. Poor of Cincinnati and Frank Mauller of Chillicothe, Republican members of the public utilities commission, hit back at Governor Donahey for his charge that the commission's order for statewide investigation of the telephone situation is a political maneuver.

"The commission emphatically denies that any political consideration affected its decision," their statement declared. Since Donahey has been governor, the statement added, he has failed to give the commission any "guidance or helpful suggestion," and never communicated or discussed with the commission his proposal, made last March, for a statewide telephone probe.

Poor and Mauller were appointed to the commission by Harry L. Davis when he was governor.

Tire Prices Cut.

Akron, O., Oct. 17.—Reductions in the prices of high pressure pneumatic tires were announced by officials of two rubber companies here. Firestone officials announced there would be a price cut of from 3 to 6 per cent beginning Monday. The Miller Tire and Rubber company also announced a general cut in high pressure pneumatic prices, but said the actual amount had not been determined. Officers of other tire companies here said no cuts are being contemplated.

Double Tragedy.

Zanesville, O., Oct. 17.—Crazed by jealousy, Dallas Sceron, 60, killed Mrs. Caroline Murray, 55, by beating her over the head with a blunt hatchet and then slashed his throat with a razor, at the Sceron home, in this county.

TESTIMONY OF HODGES SHOWS DONATIONS TO REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN

Joseph Grundy Biggest Donor to Fund, Is Shown—Fail to Prove He Raised $600,000 For Work
In Western States

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Further detailed information of donations to the Republican national campaign "war chest" and of the committee's expenditures, particularly for speakers and publicity, "so that we can disclose to the country's patriots" who go about shrieking for the "B" to be saved at so much per shriek" were to be brought out today at the second day's session of the senatorial fund investigation committee meeting here to probe Senator Robert M. La Follette's "slush fund" charges.

The information was to come to the national committee treasurer, largely from William V. Hodges, who yesterday disclosed that "the official Republican campaign budget had been estimated at $3,000,000 and that $1,342,955 already had been contributed to the Coolidge cause $95,000 of which came from Joseph Grundy, Bristol, Pa. It was Grundy that La Follette charged with having supervised the raising of $600,000 in eastern Pennsylvania, to "buy the election of Coolidge in the doubtful midwestern states."

Hodges also revealed yesterday that at least $10,000 came to the Republican coffers from members of the firm of J. P. Morgan and Company and that the largest single contributor to the campaign funds aside from Mr. Grundy, was William Wrigley Jr. who made a lump donation of $25,000.

Today he was to be asked to give

WILL NAME GIANT ZEP LOS ANGELES

Washington, Oct. 17.—The ZR-3, giant airship, will be named "Los Angeles," as a recognition of the fact that the dirigible would be a "ship of peace," Secretary of the Navy Wilbur announced.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, commanding officer of the ZR-3, and three of the ranking German officers of the crew which brought over the airship, were presented to President Coolidge at the white house by Secretary Wilbur. President Coolidge repeated to them in person the congratulations he expressed in his telegram to Eckener upon the arrival of the ship. After the reception at the white house, the German officers and the American observers who made the transatlantic trip were entertained at luncheon by the secretary of the navy.

TWO WOMEN SLAIN BY CRAZED MAN

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Mrs. Anna Pelski of East Amherst and her daughter, Sophie, 21, were killed and Irvine Templeton fatally wounded in a shooting affray in an attorney's office here. The shooting took place during the settlement of an estate. Martin Warren, said by police to have been released from the state hospital recently, was arrested immediately after the shooting, charged with the double slaying. Warren, witnesses said, entered the office with two drawn revolvers and started shooting. It is said that Warren was obsessed with the idea that his estate was being dissipated by court costs.

Anti-Saloon League on Crabbe.

Columbus, Oct. 17.—The American Issue, Anti-Saloon League organ, says there has been no break between the league and Attorney General Crabbe over the ruling against so-called card deputies in the state prohibition department. It adds: "The American Issue criticized the attorney general, not for his opinion, but for the manner in which it was given. Whether the attorney general was right is for the court decide. His opinion still stands." Crabbe is pronounced satisfactorily. Concerning Thomas H. Morrow, Crabbe's opponent, the Issue says that as federal district attorney he made a good record, "especially in the enforcement of dry laws."

Mack Buys Star Twirler.

Baltimore, Oct. 17.—"Lefty" Groves, star left-handed pitcher of the Baltimore Orioles, has been sold to the Philadelphia Athletics for $100,000, it was announced by Jack Dunn, owner of the Orioles. The price is the highest ever paid for a minor league player, it is said. Groves is 24. This year he won 26 games, lost six and struck out 230 batters.

DECLARE TONGS NOT CONNECTED WITH OLD CHINA IS OPINION

Dayton, Oct. 17.—That the Tongs which are warring in this country among the Chinese citizens are not in any way connected with old China, is the opinion of Adrian Tsu and Francis Chang, Chinese students of the University of Dayton who were called upon by the police of Dayton recently to act as interpreters.

The two Chinese lads questioned in vain Feun Hung, a Chinaman held here for alleged connection with the Chinese murder committee in Dayton last week. Chief of Police Woodward holds the opinion that the murder is a part of the Tong war which had again broken out in New York and China.

Tsu and Chang are millionaire students, the former from Shanghai and the latter from Canton. They questioned Hung in several of the various dialects used in China, but could get nothing out of the alleged suspect. Chang is inclined to believe that the suspect refused to talk simply because he did not want to convict himself.

COOLIDGE SPEAKS TO FOREIGN BORN

Washington, Oct. 17.—President Coolidge told a delegation of foreign-born citizens that called at the white house that the United States can aid most in settling world troubles and in developing its own standard by continuing "as an example and a demonstration that peace, harmony, cooperation and a truly national patriotic sentiment may be established and perpetuated on an American scale."

"Those who cast their lot with this country can be true to the land of their origin only by first being true to America," he said. "We can be in a position to help only by unifying the American nation, building it up, making it strong, keeping it independent, using its inclination to help and disincorporation to injure." Coolidge said three factors had made America able to assimilate various races and groups into a unified nation—"universal tolerance, our republican system of government and our system of universal free education."

Naval Men Drowned.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 17.—A naval officer and an enlisted man attached to the Hampton Roads naval base were drowned here when an automobile in which they were riding crashed into the Elizabeth river. The dead are: Lieutenant W. B. Buchanan, 34, of Indiana, and Rudolph Leckner, a seaman.

JOHN D'S HAIR WORE OUT SAYS BARBER

Tarrytown, N. Y., Oct. 17.—John D. Rockefeller isn't bald from having his hair fall out. He wore it out. For that you have the word of his barber, Edward Helwig, 67, who today celebrated with some pomp and not a little bit of ceremony his fiftieth year of snip-snipping in this village.

Helwig said that if the emperor of Standard Oil had listened to his barber rather than his doctors, he would have had a head of thick, long silk hair today, instead of a wig.

VOLUNTEERS DEFEATED IN BATTLE WITH SEN'S ARMY IN MIDST OF SERIOUS FIRE

Looting Soldiers Are Beheaded—Flames Under Control
After Damage Loss of $7,000,000—
City In Terror

Canton, China, Oct. 17.—Heavy loss of life accompanied the fighting between the merchant volunteers and the Yunnanese mercenaries of Sun Yat Sen in the Saikwan district. The volunteers were finally defeated in desperate street fighting, which continued throughout the day, while flames raged about them. The fire was brought under control today with a loss estimated at $7,000,000. Several foreigners were wounded by stray bullets.

Wild confusion prevails with the soldiery openly looting in all sections. London, Oct. 17.—Several soldiers caught looting were beheaded immediately in the hours of terror following street battles between volunteers of the Canton Merchants Association and Sun Yat Sen's troops, according to agency dispatches today from Canton.

Although 1,000 are reported dead in the fights, the number of casualties cannot be determined accurately until the panic subsides. The soldiers slashed and stabbed not only their opponents, but excited civilians caught in the streets.

Defeats of the volunteers was said to have been due largely to the fire which swept through thousands of buildings.

Refugees from the burning buildings and from the streets of terror attempted to enter the foreign settlement Shamen, but there was not enough room to shelter them and the posses? sions they wanted to bring with them. Conflicting reports of progress of the battle in northern China are furnished in official statements from the Chinese and Manchurian capitals.

A communique from Peking states that General Wu Pei Fu's troops have driven the forces of Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian war lord, beyond the great Chinese wall. The communique from Mukden claims that Chang's troops have occupied Shankikwan, in northern China.

Shanghai, China, Oct. 17.—Foreign settlements here are not believed to be in danger. The guards are said to be prepared to meet any eventualities. More than 25,000 armed men, representing the armies lately engaged in battle for possession of Shanghai, are ranging about those sections of the city adjoining the foreign concessions. Most of the soldiers are without leaders. Behind the barbed wire barricades that protect the foreign settlement are 6,500 allied foreign contingents, landed from various warships in Shanghai harbor, supported by 3,500 foreign, Chinese, Japanese, Sikh and Saigonese constabulary.

Troops of the former Chekiang province army, numbering about 15,000, are concentrated for the most part north and northwest of the settlements to the southward, adjacent to Lungwha, which was headquarters of Lu Yung Hsiang, Chekiang commander, before he surrendered the city and fled to Japan. The Chekiang concentration camps is immediately west of the settlement boundaries.

According to a dispatch received here the landing of Chinese government troops at Chinwangtao was prevented by orders of the commander of the British garrison there, on the ground that such a landing would be incompatible with the protocol of 1901.

The couple was married Tuesday by a deputy city clerk in charge of the marriage licence office in the Bronx. In applying for the license Smith said he was 24 and a law clerk.

La Follette in Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 17.—Senator Robert M. La Follette in a speech here, in the midst of the corn belt, scored the federal reserve board, saying it has "worked hand in glove with Wall street to exploit the farmer and producer." La Follette declared, if elected, he would make banking credit "the servant of the people rather than its master." He would bring this about by establishing an organization of genuine co-operative banks, he said.

SAY FUND GATHERED NOT USED PROPERLY

Dayton, O., Oct. 17.—According to E. V. Stoecklein, city welfare director, only $169.49 of a fund of $5,873.24 collected in the 1923 forget-me-not campaign went to the disabled American veterans of the world war. Stoecklein recommended to City Manager Eichelberger that the application of the disabled war veterans' organization for permission to sell forget-me-nots on the streets of Dayton be disapproved. Stoecklein's report to the city manager was based upon an audit completed by Battelle & Battelle, certified public accountants, covering the period from July 17, 1923, to Nov. 20, 1923.

DRY ENFORCEMENT
TO COST $8,000,000
ESTIMATE SHOWS

Washington, Oct. 17.—Prohibition enforcement in the United States in 1925 will cost the government about $8,000,000 according to present indications, the United States treasury estimated today.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon regards the present enforcement corps as adequate and feels that unless there is a material change in the situation, no increase in the appropriation will be necessary next year.

Increased facilities in the United States coast guard, including both personnel and fast rum chasers, have succeeded in cutting down the enormous tide of liquor that has swept into the United States during the last two years, according to Mellon.

Various estimates have fixed the smuggled liquor at from 250,000 to 1,000,000 cases a month. These figures have been materially lessened in the past month, according to officials.

At the headquarters of the Anti-Saloon league of America, it was declared that a tremendous wave of sentiment favorable to better enforcement of the prohibition laws is apparent. Co-operative movements of temperance and church organizations and public officials is having "amazingly fine results," according to Anti-Saloon leaders.

The appropriation of $8,000,000 was said today by officials of the league to be satisfactory to the organized dries and they do not expect to oppose it before congress.

MARRIED THURSDAY

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 17.—While Mrs. Shirley Knox Hall-Quest and Alfred L. Hart were being married yesterday in Chicago, old friends and associates here were sending messages of loyalty to President Alfred L. He freed Mrs. Hall-Quest so she could wed Hart, whose wife obtained a decree last week.

The Rotary club wired to Prof. Hall-Quest as follows:

"Have just learned of the regrettable action of your university. Don't forget that you have 400 staunch and loyal friends in the Cincinnati Rotary Club, who believe in you and are back of you always."

CONFESSES HE SHOT
STATE POLICEMAN

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 17.—Philip A. Hartman, of Rochester, N. Y., voluntarily surrendered to Reading police last night, and, after a grueling examination, when he offered an alibi for himself, and discrepancies were found, broke down and confessed that he had shot and killed State Trooper Francis L. Haley at Caledonia Park, last Tuesday afternoon.

Hartman said he had robbed the State bank of Abbotstown, Pa., of $1,400 and then fled across the mountains, hoping to double up on his trail and return to Aspers, where he has a brother. However, Haley appeared on the road and he shot and killed him.

Brief but Important Lessons in Finance, Markets, Stocks, Bonds and Investments

USE YOUR BANKER'S
VISION WHEN YOU BUY SECURITIES

When you go to buy a bond or stock as an investment see whether it measures up to the tests enumerated below. If it measures up favorably, it is a good investment.

Here are the tests of an investment:

1. Security of principal;
2. Stability of income;
3. Fair income return;
4. Marketability;
5. Value as collateral;
6. Tax position (federal, state, local);
7. Freedom from care;
8. Acceptable duration;
9. Acceptable denomination;
10. Appreciation.

Some of these things the average man can measure for himself; others require special training in investment and finance and an investor should be aided in judging them by a banker. In going to a banker, however, take along this outline and ask him to explain whether security can measure up well to these ten tests. He will be glad to show you where it does and where it does not—advising you as to whether or not the good factors outweigh the unfavorable factors in regard to any security.

WIFE OF ELOPER IS AT HOME OF MOTHER AFTER DISAPPEARING

Hugging her nine weeks old baby to her breast, Mrs. Arzola Payne, wife of Charles Payne, who eloped more than a week ago with Anna Rollen, 16 year old high school pupil, wandered back Thursday to the poor rooms which she and Payne called home, in the "Three B's" East Church Street.

Probation Officer J. E. Watts, who has been working on the case since the disappearance of Payne and the girl, interviewed the woman there. "I don't want him back. I don't want him back. Let him stay with her," she repeated. "I can take care of the baby."

A week ago last Monday night following a quarrel with the husband who was about to desert her for a girl less than half his age, Mrs. Payne snatched up her infant and fled into the night. Since then authorities and neighbors had heard nothing of her.

"Just camping," was the only answer she gave to Officer Watts' inquiries as to where she had been.

She said that she believed her husband and the girl were hiding with relatives near Jeffersonville, but refused to give the name or definite location of the people with whom they were supposed to be. She appeared fearful that she would again have to live with Payne.

Anxious for her welfare and that of her pinched looking little baby, Officer Watts notified the Social Service League and Miss Jennie Moffett, the nurse, went to the house Thursday afternoon.

The woman and baby were gone. Mrs. Rollen, the mother of Anna, explained that Mrs. Payne's brother, Uday had arrived after the visit of Mr. Watts, and had taken Mrs. Payne and the baby to the home of her mother, Mrs. Smith near Washington C. H. She said that the man was from Pennsylvania and had driven here to look after the family after hearing of Payne's actions. He told Mrs. Rollen that the escape was not the first of the nature in which Payne had taken part.

Officer Watts said the deserted wife appeared dazed and as if she might have been mentally affected by privation and suffering.

BOMBER WILL FLY TO COLUMBUS MEET

The gigantic airship, the Barling bomber, now stationed at Wilbur Wright Field, Fairfield, will be flown to Columbus a week from Sunday, as an added attraction on the program for entertainment of the Reserve Officers' Association, in national convention at Columbus, then according to information received by William F. Gentner, secretary-treasurer of the Aero Club, in a letter from Lieut. Harold R. Harris, pilot of the plane. The coming attraction has been arranged through efforts of the Aero Club of Columbus.

It was also said that a "Sperry Messenger," one of the smallest, air-planes used in the army air service, will accompany the plane for the purpose of furnishing a striking contrast to the giant of the air. The contrast is better demonstrated on the ground, when the "Sperry" fits neatly under the lower wing of the Barling.

Visitors at the Ohio State-Chicago foot ball game will also have a chance to view the big plane, as it will circle the Ohio Stadium between halves of the game, where 500 seats have been reserved for the visiting officers. Neither ship is scheduled to land.

DAYTON BOY HURT IN LEAP FROM FREIGHT TRAIN

Leonard Barney, aged 10, living at 3029 East Fifth Street, Dayton, sustained a scalp wound and collar fracture of the left arm above the wrist when he jumped from a Pennsylvania freight train on which he was beating a ride, near Alpha Friday morning.

Lester Croy telegraph operator at Alpha, found the boy lying beside the track and he was taken to the office of Dr. George Anderson of Alpha. After his wounds were dressed he was taken to his home by Walter Cline. Barney and a companion boarded the train while it was standing in the Dayton yards, thinking they could jump off before the train got out of the city. His companion remained on the train until it neared Xenia. None of the crew knew the boys were aboard.

COP BRUISED WHEN CYCLE HITS DITCH

Motorcycle Patrolman, Peter Shagin, received minor bruises and his motorcycle was slightly damaged Thursday evening about 6 o'clock when his machine went into the ditch adjoining the Wilmington Pike when he was crowded off the road by another automobile.

A Ford touring car, driven by P. C. Bankard, of this city, driving toward Wilmington, turned off from the right side of the road to avoid a bad place in the pike, near the O. S. and S. O. Home, and Shagin, coming to Xenia, with the side car attached to his car, was unable to pass and was forced to drive into a ditch.

Bankard, not noticing that Shagin had gone into the ditch, and thinking there had been sufficient room to pass, drove on, but stopped and came back when Shagin fired a shot into the air. Bankard was not held responsible for the accident. C. P. Yowler, of this city, was in the auto with Bankard.

BAPTISTS WILL RE- DEDICATE CHURCH

Re-dedication services will be held at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning, marking the completion of repairs and improvements to the interior of the edifice, which have been in progress for some time. The congregation will worship for the first time Sunday in the newly decorated church.

In view of the fact that evangelistic services will begin at the church Sunday morning, that time was chosen for the special service of re-dedication. The Rev. William Pfeiffer of Columbus, the evangelist will preach at both the morning and evening services to which friends are invited.

The improvements to the interior of the church consist of re-tiling of the auditorium, a new lighting system and new plumbing. Repairs on the roof were completed some time ago and the exterior of the church will be painted later.

Mrs. William Magee Wilson, one of those instrumental in making the local engagement for Mrs. Clark, selected the lecture to be given here because she heard Mrs. Clark deliver it and was charmed with the lecturer's presentation of the subject, her wit and personality.

HOBBO TO COMPLAIN OF SERVICE AFTER WRECK JOLTS HIM

A lone hobo, resident of the great open spaces, coming from nowhere particular and bound for the same spot, was rudely jolted out of his special reservation on a Big Four freight train Thursday afternoon, when his box car "Pullman" vaulted the rails as the train was pulling into Osborn, and carried twelve other cars after it.

The wreck scattered empty box cars along the tracks, but the unbidden passenger on the rods, although shaken out of his boots and jolted half to death, rode merrily down the ties for about forty feet, and came out of the accident with nothing more serious than several bruises.

The wanderer succeeded in extricating himself from his "special" just before a load of hay in the car following him, caught on fire.

The tramp was revived soon after with the assistance of Engineer Louis Call and Conductor Sam Jones and other members of the crew; as well as the small crowd of bystanders that soon gathered. He was somewhat battered up by his close call and complained of stiff joints. However, he was able to continue his journey on foot. His name was not learned.

It was not learned what caused the cars to jump the track, nor was the crew able to determine what started the blaze in the carload of hay. Flames completely consumed the hay and the car was destroyed. No other car was damaged.

The fire department of Osborn was called, and after the flames were extinguished it was found that the three oil tanks, directly behind the consignments were completely empty.

The speed of the train was estimated at about twenty miles an hour, when the accident occurred and when the cars left the rails several of them were overturned.

MUSICAL COMEDY PLEASES CROWDS ON FINAL NIGHT

"Mrs. and Mr. Polly Tickle," musical comedy presented two nights at the Opera House under the auspices of Aldora Chapin, Order of Eastern Star, played its final engagement before a large and appreciative audience Thursday evening.

The cast working smoothly on its second appearance, excelled its first night performance, and pleased the audience to the extent of hearty applause for each number. The comedy was sparkling with a unique humorous situations, bright and snappy.

Lines, and the music was excellent. The orchestra under direction of Miss Lucille Denham, again special appreciation at the performance. The musical comedy was directed and staged by Anne Shenck of the Wayne Sewell Company, Atlanta, Ga., played the lead and deservedly considered credit for whittling production into shape in record time.

Proceeds go to the Mason Temple fund.

NOTHING PRETTY IN FALLING LEAVES TO STREET CLEANERS

Beautiful autumn leaves, tinted with many colors, may bring joy to many people and nature lovers, but not so to the street cleaners, who are unable to find anything beautiful about them at all.

The members of the street cleaning department, are always swamped with work about this time of year, as they are now making the annual general fall cleanup of city streets.

Many truckloads of leaves have already been hauled away and in several days the city streets will have had their first complete cleaning. But there is always more work for the cleaners as the leaves continue to fall.

Many residents may wish to burn leaves in front of their homes, but Chief of Police M. E. Graham has issued a warning that the burning of leaves on paved streets is prohibited. People living on unpaved streets are privileged to burn leaves provided that the fire is fifty feet away from any building.

Xenia has been unusually lucky, according to Fire Chief T. B. Claire, in the matter of fires, as there are usually a large number of blazes started from burning leaves about this time of year.

Chief Graham advises residents to burn their leaves on their gardens, if possible.

Salesman Killed.
Canton, O., Oct. 17.—E. W. Henderson, salesman of Oleon, N. Y., was killed here when his automobile crashed into a pole after rounding an intersection in the business district. No bruises were found on his body and it is believed an attack of heart disease was the cause of death.

FLU LEFT MRS. MENKE IN TERRI- BLE CONDITION

Her Ailments Were Numerous And She Didn't Know What To Do—But Tanlac Brought Complete Relief.

"After the way Tanlac has improved my health I can praise it as a wonderful medicine," is the candid statement of Mrs. Clara Menke, 2235 Roosevelt Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

"Following a spell of 'flu' two years ago my ailments were so numerous and distressing that I didn't know what to do. Indigestion, shortness of breath, blinding dizzy spells, backache; all these troubles preyed on my energy and strength until I got so weak and nervous I would often have to sit down to keep from falling.

"But Tanlac put a stop to my troubles and a perfectly well woman of me. I have gained ten pounds, eat and sleep like a child, and have hearty hand strength that make life a pleasure."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills recommended by the manufacturers of TANLAC.

MY BEAUTY

Is All Due to Beauty Helps By Edna Wallace Hopper
I was a plain girl with little distinction. I made myself a famous beauty. Now after 35 years as a stage star, I remain a beauty still. The thousands who see me daily on the stage know that I look 19.

When I was a girl, my rich mother took me on a world search for the supreme beauty helps. Those helps made me famous. Since then I have kept in touch with every new discovery. I have made many trips to France. So what I was and what I am are due to scientific help.

Now women have convinced me that I should share these helps with others. Millions of girls and women want what I have gained. So I have combined all the helps I have discovered in four preparations, with 52 ingredients. And I have arranged so that all druggists and toilet counters offer them to all who wish.

One is a liquid cleanser which I call my Facial Youth. Lucie Lanterne, the famous Parsian beauty, first told me what it did. Now great beauty experts the world over are advising this formula. No other cleanser which man has discovered does what this cleanser does.

My Facial Youth contains no animal, no vegetable fat. It cannot in any way assimilate with the skin. It simply cleans to the depths, then departs. All the grime, dead skin and clogging matter comes out with it.

That is the first beauty essential—an utterly clean skin. But I never dreamed what a clean skin meant until I found this Facial Youth.

Now Edna Wallace Hopper's Facial Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. The cost is 75c.

Write me for my Beauty Book and I'll send with it something else to please you. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

The CALENDAR OF DINNERS

A new source of daily cooking help

Contents

365 complete dinner menus—one for each day of the year. A daily answer to the daily puzzle, "What shall we have for dinner to-night?"

Practical suggestions for judging, choosing and cooking meats, fish, fowl and game.

"Time-table" showing just how long to cook various classes of foods together with a complete and modern table of measurements.

Unusual and unusually helpful ideas about cake-making and pie-baking.

Special sections on Soups, Vegetables, Candies, Salads, Puddings, Breads, Eggs, Vegetarian dishes and the Art of Carving.

231 pages of practical culinary information handsomely bound in blue cloth and printed on fine coated paper.

Of this cook book, written by Marion Harris Neil, formerly cooking editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, a prominent New York publisher said: "Such a book would cost at least $1.00 in the average book store."

But you will find below a simple way to get it for 10c.

How to get this $1.00 Cook Book for 10c (Special Offer for one week)

HERE is a really unusual opportunity. We wish every housekeeper in this city to use a can of Crisco; to discover for herself through actual test the ten outstanding virtues of Crisco (listed below).

So in cooperation with your grocer we are making an offer by which you can save 90c.

How you Save 90c

During the coming week we will give you, for 10c, an unusual cook book with a minimum value of $1.00—provided you accompany that 10c with a wrapper from a can of Crisco.

Does any shortening, besides CRISCO, possess these 10 virtues?

- 1 Crisco is a pure vegetable shortening—not an animal fat. Crisco is made from the pure sweet oils of growing plants.
- 2 Crisco delightfully answers every shortening and frying purpose: For Cake-making, Shortening, Frying.
- 3 Crisco gives perfectly delicious results. Crisco cakes are light and tender and stay fresh longer. Crisco fried foods are crisp outside and tender and fine-flavored inside. Crisco pie crusts and pastry are deliciously brown and flaky.
- 4 Crisco needs no refrigeration. It keeps sweet and fresh indefinitely without ice-box help.
- 5 Crisco is very digestible. (Food authorities say that an easily digested fat should melt near body heat—98° degrees. Crisco melts even below this temperature. It melts at 97 degrees.)
- 6 Crisco helps to secure uniform cooking results, for Crisco itself is absolutely uniform. Crisco never varies—it is the same to-day, to-morrow and a year from to-day.
- 7 In frying with Crisco you avoid smoke and unpleasant odors. Crisco never publishes, to living room callers, intimate news of kitchen activities.
- 8 In frying, Crisco is but little absorbed by foods. Crisco makes fried foods with a crisp, brown outside and a tender, digestible inside.
- 9 After frying with Crisco you can strain it and use it again and again. You can fry fish, then onions, then potatoes in Crisco and the potatoes will not even hint of the onion.
- 10 In all kinds of cooking Crisco lets the fine full flavor of the ingredients come out—undisguised by the flavor of the shortening itself.

This cook book consists of 231 pages of cooking and serving information—the sort of information that will give really practical daily help to even an experienced cook. Prepared by Marion Harris Neil, formerly cooking editor of the Ladies' Home Journal, it contains also 615 tested recipes.

In "A Calendar of Dinners" Mrs. Neil approaches the housekeeper's daily problem of "what for dinner" from a fresh, sympathetic viewpoint.

Her cook book will save you a great deal of time and worry when you are puzzled over the menu for a dinner.

For it contains a special dinner menu for every day in the year and gives recipes for a great many of the dishes mentioned in these menus.

An outstanding point about these recipes is this: They are prepared with special reference to digestibility. They will be peculiarly welcome to every thoughtful wife and mother who keeps a careful eye on the healthfulness of her family's foods.

The simple way to secure this cook book

To secure for 10c the $1.00 cook book shown above is a very simple and easy matter. This is all you need to do:

1. Buy a can of Crisco from your grocer.
2. Clip the coupon in the lower right-hand corner of this page and carefully fill in your name and address.
3. Remove the outside wrapper of your can of Crisco, attach the coupon to it and bring or mail both the coupon and the wrapper to the

Gazette and Republican,
Xenia,
Ohio.

Enclose or bring 10c in stamps or coin.

Special Crisco Week at your grocer's

During the coming week you will see Crisco prominently displayed in your grocer's store. He will invite you to buy a can. If you order by telephone he will mention Crisco especially. His reasons are two-fold and both are reasons of service to you:

1. Wishing to do you a service beyond the mere filling of your daily order, your grocer will urge you to buy a can of Crisco this week because he will thus help you to secure for 10c a cook book valued at $1.00 at least.

2. As a progressive modern merchant your grocer naturally prefers to sell you the most practical and wholesome food ingredients. He would rather sell you a shortening which you can use for every cake-making, every shortening and every frying purpose than one whose usefulness is limited. When he sells you Crisco he knows that he is selling you a shortening which alone delightfully answers every shortening purpose; a wholesome shortening made from the pure sweet oils of growing plants.

Clip this coupon and secure this $1.00 cook book for only one wrapper from a can of Crisco and

BITTER FEELING TOWARD ELECTION COMING IS GREAT

London, Oct. 17.—Bitterness toward the forthcoming election is increasing and it is manifesting itself at campaign meetings.

Sir Robert Gower, Tory candidate at Hackney, was forced to call off a meeting and was escorted from the hall under guard. The Tory meetings at Battersea have been broken up. Twenty were injured, three seriously, when a West Belfast mob attacked Harry Muggely, laborite candidate and hurled stones until the police dispersed the rioters. It is feared that Muggely was seriously injured.

The religious issue has been brought into the campaign by Lord Beaverbrook's London Daily Express, which recounts at great length the soviet persecution of Catholic priests, and declares that as a result, Catholics will not support labor candidates.

The Daily Herald charges that the papers controlled by Lord Rothermere are deliberately juggling figures to show that unemployment increased under the labor regime.

Tory and anti-Russian posters are plastered over the country-side and downtown London displays many labor posters.

DAVIS MAKES NEW ATTACK ON DONAHEY IN BELLAIRE TALK

Cambridge, O., Oct. 17.—Former Governor Harry L. Davis, of Cleveland, Republican nominee against Governor Vio Donahey in the November election, spoke at an early afternoon meeting in support of his campaign here.

Davis came here after a day spent in campaigning in Belmont County which he closed with a brief meeting at Bellaire. At that place he made a new attack on Governor Donahey, charging the chief executive was soliciting campaign contributions from concerns selling material to the state.

"Every dollar contributed to my previous campaign was honestly reported," said Davis and every dollar contributed to this campaign will be honestly reported. No contribution has ever been received of will be accepted from any source that puts the Republican party under obligation.

"The opposition is bemoaning the fact that its campaign contributions are few and small. The reason is that folks do not want to contribute. They do not want the incumbent back in office.

"The governor, in his desperate efforts to bolster up his campaign is sending out letters himself soliciting campaign funds from concerns that deal in materials for roads and thus make profits off the state. I have in my possession a letter which bears the signature of Vic Donahey. It is addressed to such a material concern and asks that the money be sent direct to the governor himself.

"We hear but little from our opponents except the phrase 'common honesty.' It is all right for a campaign cry but its application is necessary to make it sincere."

ASSEMBLY ROOM IS BEING DECORATED

County Commissioners have authorized improvements on the Assembly Room, Court House, that have already begun and which will greatly improve the interior of the room.

The improvements were authorized as a result of the growing demand for use of the room by organizations, which now occupy it frequently. The walls of the room are now being painted.

The Assembly Room is one of several being re-decorated by orders of the commissioners. Painting and varnishing has been completed in the offices of the treasurer and the auditor.

EAST END NEWS

The Home Department Class No. 1, of the Zion Baptist Sunday School, will meet Sunday afternoon, 2:30, at the home of Miss Minton Washington, East Main Street.

More than 200 delegates had registered up until Thursday with the Woman's Department to begin session Friday morning. This will call many more to these meetings daily. Many persons from here go. Rev. from a young man in these seasons in many years.

St. John's A. M. E. Church closes its conference year Sunday. The work for the year has been above the average. Mortgage debt reduced and a parsonage obtained. The pastor is succeeding fairly well in getting in the conference claims and well wishers will report to him by Sunday.

Broughton; 3:00 p.m., platform meeting; 8:00, closing sermon by Rev. Broughton. All having envelopes are asked to bring them in at either of these services. Everybody is invited to worship with us during the day.

"Uneda Bakers"

Good bakings are becoming a matter of fact in this country. Years ago, the woman who had success on bake day was rare. Now, most anyone can be proud of their bakings,—the young bride, the school-girl and all.

Calumet Baking Powder has made all this possible, it is sitting on the pantry shelf in millions of homes, that's the secret of baking success—the real reason for uniform and wholesome food.

CALUMET
The World's Greatest BAKING POWDER

BEST BY TEST

If you are among the few who are not familiar with the results obtained from using Calumet, try it—learn the difference between the results that come from using a perfect leavener and those that are experienced when using unreliable brands.

To follow the directions on the Calumet label is to invite success. You must not use as much as you do of many other kinds. You know Calumet has greater leavening strength than many other brands—it goes farther—makes more bakings—the last spoonful is as good as the first.

EVERY INGREDIENT USED OFFICIALLY APPROVED BY U. S. FOOD AUTHORITIES

SALES 2 1/2 TIMES THOSE OF ANY OTHER BRAND

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Urge Probation For Adult Offenders At Big Welfare Meeting

Columbus, Oct. 16.-The Ohio Welfare conference, in annual session here, may urge the next legislature to create a comprehensive probation system for adult offenders in Ohio.

Outlines of the proposed law, which is being drafted by the Ohio institute, were presented at sectional sessions of the conference. It would provide a case study, encompassing social, physical and psychological history, before passage of sentence. It is proposed merely to authorize creation in each county of a probation board, the functions of which would be purely advisory. Cases coming to the attention of common pleas court could be referred to this board, which would conduct an investigation of home surroundings, physical condition and mental status of the offender involved.

As now contemplated, organization of the board would be optional. Decision as to whether it should be created would be left to each individual county.

That a difficult task is being assumed and that its ultimate success depends largely upon changing the prevailing attitude of the public toward adult offenders' was admitted by Dean Haggerty of the college of commerce and journalism, Ohio State university, who discussed the proposed law at a meeting of the Ohio State Probation association. Dean Haggerty declared this need is equally applicable both to the laity and the judiciary.

TEMPTING GRID DISH OFFERED FOR FANS IN SATURDAY GAMES

Probably the best grid dish ever offered followers of the fall pastime in October will be served up Saturday when a series of inter-sectional and other clashes will probably decide the final rating of many of the leading elevens of the country.

In what is probably the biggest game scheduled Saturday, Dartmouth invades Yale territory at New Haven, in a game that may decide the best eastern team of the year. Dartmouth is favored to cop in a close struggle as graduation has hurt Yale's chances.

Penn State will invade Southern territory for the first time in several years, when Georgia University is played at Atlanta. Georgia is favored to win, in view of her fine showing against Yale although losing 7 to 6 last Saturday. Princeton, held to a scoreless tie by Leigh last week, should win from the Navy at Princeton as the Middies have shown nothing this year.

Notre Dame, flushed with a successful invasion of the East last year, will again try her luck, in the biggest inter-sectional game of the day, meeting the Army at New York. Both teams shape up as about even in strength, with Notre Dame favored to win.

A majority of the Ohio Conference teams should swing into mid-season form, Saturday, and several leaders

HUGHES SAYS THIRD PARTY DANGEROUS

New York, Oct. 17.—Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes, speaking in Carnegie hall to a crowd that filled every available spot and overflowed into the streets, predicted that in the coming election the Democratic party would be cut to pieces in the west and honeycombed in the east.

The secretary called upon Democrats to join with the Republican party in defeating what he termed the radicals. There was scolding applause for Senator La Follette when first Hughes mentioned the third party candidate's name, but hoots and hisses soon drowned that out.

Secretary Hughes called the third party "a dangerous enemy."

Traffic Victims.
Cleveland, Oct. 17.—Two more victims of traffic accidents died here. Stephen Conroy, 57, died from injuries received Oct. 12, when he was struck by an auto; Mrs. Hattie Colts, 30, died from injuries she received when struck by a machine Oct. 5.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

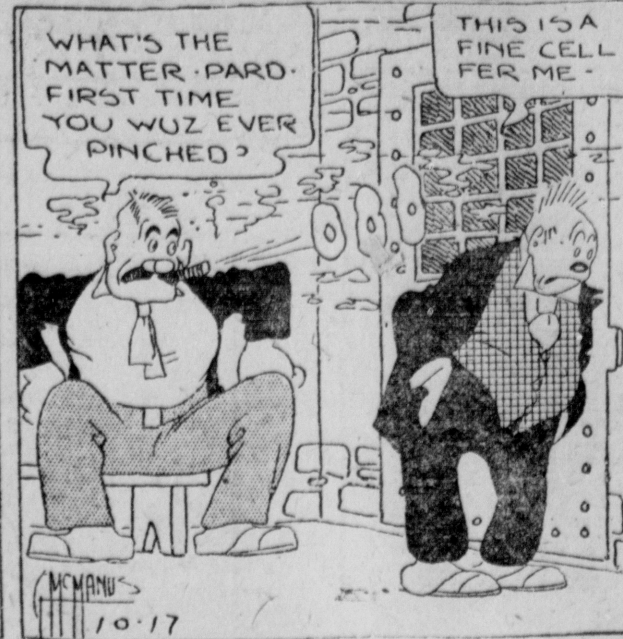

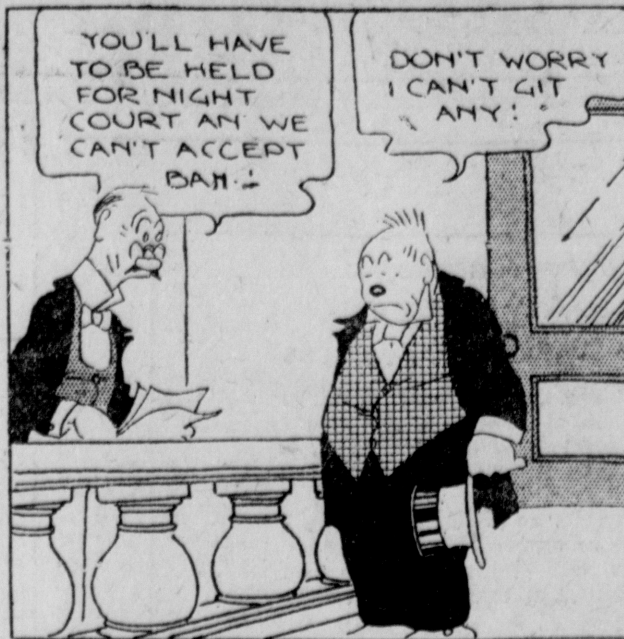

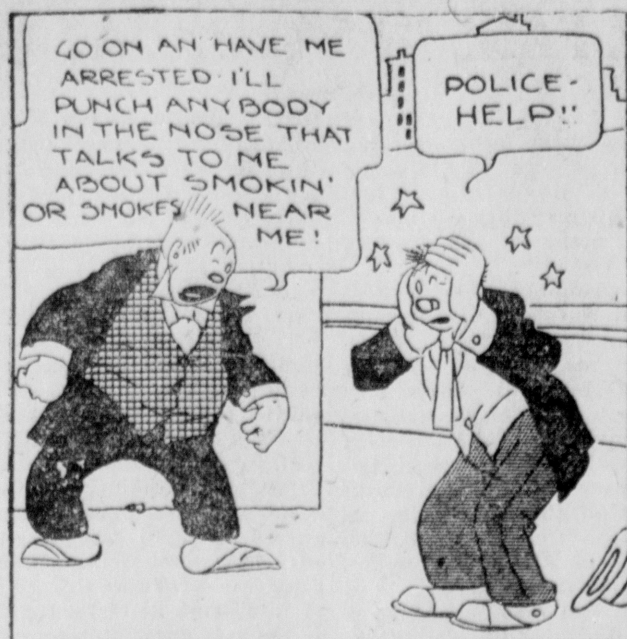

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga. (Adv.)

TIME TO FACE THE FACTS

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years doctoring with six different doctors, without results, for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicitis and other ailments, I was said to possess, I was encouraged to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, seeing what it had done for a friend similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble, and am sure this medicine will do all and more than is claimed for it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill, and druggists everywhere.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By GEORGE McMANUS

The Truant Soul

By Victor Rousseau

"That scalpel—quick!" he cried. Joan started and stretched out her hands toward the tray, which gleamed afar off, elusively through a black cloud.

"The one I handed you. Don't stare at me like a fool!"

Joan bent over the tray, putting out one hand to the table to support herself. She was conscious that everything was suspended and that everyone was watching her. In the interminable interval she heard the patient's gasping sighs, as if he was breathing the last wisps of life away.

She fingered the instruments in the tray feebly and nervously, and her hands seemed numb and useless. Her fingers closed on something and brought it out. Then Lancaster's hand closed over hers, tore it away, and flung it back with a splash. Joan's hand dropped to her side, paralyzed by the painful pressure. The next instant Lancaster had the scalpel and whirled swiftly back toward the table, upsetting the bichloride, which lapped over the patient's feet.

The moments went by like hours. At last Joan became aware, through the sudden untravelling of the suspense, that the crux of the operation was over. Her head grew clear again. She saw the assistant surgeons unfastening the artery clamps. The head nurse rose to her feet, not looking at the patient. Joan realized that she was crying, and her strong, epicene face looked grotesque in grief. The orderly came up, and together they placed the patient on the stretcher. And suddenly Joan knew that the man was dead.

As the stretcher was wheeled out of the theater Lancaster turned toward his visitors.

"A very successful piece of work," he said. "It's a pity the poor fellow will never know how much I have done for him."

Joan felt the visiting surgeons' disgust at the execrable jest. Lancaster seemed to sense it, too.

"Unfortunately," he continued, "the best of surgeons is not proof against the stupidity of a nurse."

And he turned upon Joan fiercely. "What is your name?" he demanded.

"Miss Wentworth, Doctor Lancaster."

"Well, you're no use here. You're wasting your time. You've killed a man this morning," he bellowed. "If I can't have women about me with rational heads on their shoulders I'll get out and earn my living as a stenographer or saleslady. That's all your talents are fit for, Miss Wentworth!"

Joan looked at him in amazement. At his first words, at his tone, she had felt the shock of anger in her heart gather itself and leap to meet his own. But his rage frightened her, her head ached, and she was sick from the fumes which still penetrated the theater. She tried to answer him, but could not utter a word and broke into tears instead, sobbing in complete nervous abandonment.

Lancaster turned from her with a wry face. "Well, gentlemen," he said, with an affectation of jovialness, "better luck next time. I'm sorry the operation was not successful, but, after all, the patient's life is not the principal thing. The method was correct, you see, but I did not reckon on an incompetent assistant."

"Put the blame on the anesthetic, Doctor Lancaster," said a white-headed surgeon, with chivalrous intent. "With a nephritis history operation's useless. Better let them die peacefully."

"I did not quite grasp the technical innovation you spoke of, Doctor Lancaster," said another. "To my mind it was the original Leonard operation, except that—"

"Why did you divide the arterial coats below the site of the aneurism?" queried a third.

Lancaster led them from the theater, expostulating and explaining. The dark-haired girl lingered with the sponges. The assistant surgeons had already gone hurriedly out. Joan put her tray away. She still was unable to control her sobs.

Suddenly Lancaster reappeared, furious after the cross-examination to which he had been subjected. He came straight toward Joan with a face of malice. Unconscious of her pitiful aspect as a child might have been, she raised her streaming face and looked at him.

"You had no right to speak to me like that, whatever I did," she said. "Whatever you did? Whatever you failed to do? What do you think you are here for?" he stormed.

He glared at her, turned away, hesitated, and then came back.

"That's just the way with you women," he cried. "You lost that case for me. And now you are thinking about your dignity. You shouldn't have taken up a nurse's vocation. You women don't know what you can do and what you can't till you find yourselves in a post of responsibility, and then you fall down. What made you take up nursing, anyway? Thought our style of caps becoming, I suppose?"

"I've done my best to qualify. I've never been blamed before."

"Well, you've made a big mistake," said Lancaster. "That's all. A—very—big—mistake," he added, emphasizing each word with a nod. "And my work and patients' lives are too important to allow mistakes to happen. You're too pretty to be a nurse, anyway," he added in a lower tone.

"You don't need to tell me that, Doctor Lancaster!" cried Joan furiously. He made a gesture of mock despair.

"That's right; get on your high horse again!" he said. "Just remember that I'm at the head of the Southern hospital, and what I say goes, that's all."
